Has returned from New York, where he secured the greatest bargains this section has ever seen or heard of.

Why pay high prices for cheap goods, when you can buy goods at such low prices?

Get yourself such a display of fine Dry Goods, fancy goods, silks, carpets, matting, clothing, shoes, groceries, etc., as was never shown in Gainesville.

I have the goods and mean to sell them. I pay cash for all my goods and get all the discounts, hence my low prices.

THE DYING YOUNG WIFE.

BY ANNIE B. BLOUNT.
They tell me when they gaze upon
My dim and sunken eye,
I'm passing from the earth—ah! I
Am so young to die!

So young to feel the tide of life,
Fast ebbing from my heart,
To look on those I fondly love,
And feel that we must part.

Twice but a few short years ago
I stood a happy bride,
And left my childhood's early home
To test the love married.

The future seemed so bright to me;
With joy my pulse beats high
Life's cup is scarcely tasted—yet
They say that I must die!

Oh! God! to know my pulse each day
Is flickering and slow;
To feel the life blood of the heart
Glow sluggishly in its flow!

And when I struggle to forget,
And smile amid the gay,
A shadowy hand I seem to see,
That beckons me away.

I am so young—so very young.
Old death why come to me,
When life is now? Go aside upon
The aged and blighted tree!

Take for thy prey some aged one
Whose life has passed its prime,
And surely hath a wish to live—
I am too young to die!

They brought, to night, my bridal veil
And twined it o'er my brow—
I seemed a shrouded nun—my face
To pale and sunken now.

I forced a piteous, moaning smile,
I tried but could not speak,
To see my silent bridal robe
Seem whiter than my cheek.

The world is bright and beautiful,
The stream glides softly by,
There's beauty on the sleeping earth,
The lumps in heaven so brightly burn.

The flowers so graceful wave,
Alas! to-morrow eve those stars,
Will shine upon my grave.

Alas! when the heart is cold and still,
That once beat high and warm,
And when a marble seal is pressed
Above my fading form.

And when I slumber, calm and still,
In some lone, quiet spot,
I know that I, once loved so well,
Will quickly be forgot.

Lovely one draw closer to me now,
I've something for thine ear,
Nay; weep—not from the cheek wipe off.
That bitter, searing tear.

I would but pray that when the flowers
Shall bloom my tomb above,
That thou wilt sometimes think of me
With tenderness and love.

I know thy heart is sorely wrung
With grief and anguish now,
I see the look of wretchedness
That settles on thy brow.

And yet are many years passed,
Ere many moons shall wane,
Thy grief will pass away—and thou
Wilt learn to love again.

Back, selfish tears down, struggling heart!
I know that it must be,
Some other day thou'lt bless with that
Fond love thou now givest me.

I know that when the chilling grave
Hath taken me from thy side,

Thou'lt fondly woo another one,
And win thy second bride.

She'll press her lips to that warm cheek
That once mine own have pressed;
She'll twine her arms around thy neck,
And nestle on thy breast.

And then with murmur love to her
In soft and gentle tones,
While I am sleeping in the grave,
Forgotten and alone.

Yet, sometimes, when evening hour
Her hand is clasped in thine—
Thy hand, that in our early love,
So tenderly held mine.

And sometimes, when her low-toned voice
Shall softly sing to thee;
O! let thy memory awake
Some passing dream of me.

'Tis all I ask—I would not have
Thine mourn my early doom
Too long—nor should thy youthful heart
In never-ending gloom.

I would not have thee wildly weep,
When I have left thy side;
I only ask remembrance kind
Of her thy lost young bride.

Oh ye—my children—motherless
So soon, what to be
My little ones that lovingly
Have nestled on my knee.

Soon shall the orphan's fate be thine,
Its anguish deep and wild—
Oh! God! I would thou now wouldst take
Each little angel child.

For who shall soothe thy infant woes,
When I am gone from sight?
And who shall watch beside thy couch
Throughout the livelong night?

And who shall join the little plays,
And kiss each baby brow?
Whose heart feel when thou shalt say
"I have no mother now!"

To-morrow he will lift the sheet
That hides my faded face,
And wonder why I don't return
Each timid, warm embrace.

Thou'lt wonder why my morning kiss
Thou hast so vainly plead,
And say thy lips are cold and still,
Nor know thy mother dead.

Thy mother's chair will vacant be;
Her garments, on the wall;
Will useless hang—nor will she hear
Thy eager, listening call.

Her voice around the hearth at eve
Will stir more be heard—
In time, thy mother's name may be
A long-forgotten word.

Farwell, my babes! God grant that the
Who fills my empty place,
Will wear, when she shall look on ye,
A gentle loving face.

God grant her eyes may ne'er be stern,
Her voice grow cold and high
In angry tones—alas! thy hard,
Thy very hand to die!

'Tis hard to leave my helpless ones
Committed to stranger hands;
To enter in my early youth,
The dim, mysterious land.

Life is so young, so bright so new,
And hath so many a tie
Of human love to bind me here—
I'm very young to die.

Draw nearer yet, beloved one!
With that fond look of old;
Press kisses quick—oh! lips—
They fast are growing cold.

Tell me again that you love me,
Each harsh, each thoughtless word,
Tell me once more, for in the grave
Thy voice cannot be heard.

If carelessly within thy heart
I ever placed a thorn;
If e'er I gave the needless pain
Forget it when I'm gone.

Some youthful error may have grieved
When I might know it not—
Think only of my virtues, love,
And be the rest forgot.

If ever thou shouldst miss the voice
That once to thee did sing;
If every day thou seem to lose
A bitter weary thing—

Come to my quiet, lonely grave;
And kneel in humble prayer;
And I will steal from heaven above
To meet and bless thee there.

The Augusta News says that from every quarter comes the glad tidings that business is improving and the outlook for the coming season is much more flattering than it was a short time ago. It is the general opinion that the dark clouds of business depression which have been hanging over this country for the last two or three years are about to be dispersed. Already we can see the sun of prosperity and plenty shining through the rifts, and it will only be a matter of a few months when its benign rays will make our country blossom as a garden more and more.

One of the few instances of a stream running up hill can be found in White County, Georgia. Near the top of a mountain is a spring, evidently a siphon, and the water rushes from it with sufficient force to carry it up the side of a very steep hill for nearly half a mile. Reaching the crest the water flows on to the east, and eventually finds its way to Atlantic Ocean. Of course, it is of the same nature as a geyser, but the spectacle of a stream of water flowing up a steep incline can probably be found nowhere else in the country and appears even more remarkable than the geysers of the Yellowstone.—Cincinnati Tribune.

TRICKED BY A LAWYER.

Lumpkin and White County Citizens Swindled Out of Their Money and Innocent People Accused of Reporting Stills.

Originated in Gainesville.

It has just come to light that a number of citizens of Lumpkin and White counties have been swindled out of several dollars by a little one-horse lawyer who is supposed to reside in Gainesville, Ga.

It is well known to many of our readers that the revenue officials have been playing havoc with the illicit distilleries within the past few months, in Shoal Creek district, Lumpkin county, and the adjoining district by the same name in White. It is further known that without the information of some of these distilleries would doubtless have been in operation to-day as an officer in Uncle Sam's employ secretly ever finds out without a guide, and that these guides or reporters get ten dollars for each still pointed out to the revenue officers, which is paid by the government, the names of such reporters always being kept a secret by the officials so as to enable them to arrest those guilty of violating the internal revenue laws of the United States and suppress this kind of business as much as possible.

Of course when an illicit distillery is destroyed by the officers the neighbors, especially those interested, are anxious to know who caused its destruction and are willing to pay any one giving the name of the reporter. But it is so arranged that no one either for love or money, is able to gain this information from the government officials, but every one is not aware of this fact, hence these citizens have recently paid out their hard earned money and got nothing in return except a false report for it.

For a purpose of five dollars a little lawyer secured a sheet of paper from Messrs. Gilmer & Bro, Gainesville, Ga., which had the name of the firm printed on it, and made out a list of names and sent them to Marion Turner of this county, stating that he had visited Atlanta and secured the names of the proper ones who had prosecuted various persons in the two districts of the two counties. We give a copy of the letter verbatim except the firm name of the Gainesville merchants and the author, which are shown to be false, as the lawyer did not intend for the letter head or his name to be seen. It is as follows:

"MARCH 19, 1895.
MR. MARION TURNER,
KIND SIR:
I have just been to Atlanta and secured an examination and found as follows:
M. L. Jones,
J. Evans,
R. L. Grindle,
W. C. Sutton,
T. N. Seabolt,
S. D. Grindle,
W. B. Grindle,
G. D. Grindle,
G. Parker,
J. H. Ash,
L. M. McCarty,
W. B. Seabolt,
J. R. Ravan,
J. R. Smith,
W. A. Ezek,
M. C. Smith,
S. Ravan,
R. M. McCarty,
Oscar Hughes.
These are the prosecutors in Lumpkin county.".....

There are no such people as many mentioned in this attorney's letter, reading in either Lumpkin or White, while others are men above suspicion, who have nothing to do with liquor or the revenue officers in any respect, being among our most law-abiding citizens who extend to no one business except their own, but it answered his purpose all the same.

While Marshall Harrison was in Gainesville, he was called on by Messrs. Gilmer & Co. to ascertain why they were disposed to sending out such reports. The gentlemen were surprised. After studying while they remembered giving Julius Dayton, who located in that city some two years ago from White county, doing a very small business as a lawyer, a sheet of paper containing their letter head, who sit down and wrote out a list of names in their store, which he said he was receiving five dollars and was going to send it to some parties in Lumpkin county. He then offered a different sheet of paper but he seemed to prefer the one with their names on it, stating that it would be an advertisement.

This is a swindling business that will receive special attention and will which will doubtless give the perpetrator a some trouble.

Seventy-One Cases on Lumpkin Superior Court Dockets.

In looking over the docket of Lumpkin Superior Court last Saturday we find that there are 71 cases to be disposed of which appear upon record—38 State cases and 33 civil cases—23 being on the issue docket and 5 on the motion docket. Arrests have been made in every state case except about four.

Out of the 38 state cases there are two charged with murder, two with assault with intent to murder, two with adultery, one with burglary, one with seduction and two with retailing liquor, while the remainder are for smaller offenses, most of them being brought about by the use of liquor.

Besides this large amount of business there are two parties lying in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury—one of them charged with assault with intent to murder and the other with gambling. There are a number of persons who have made bonds for various offenses, whose cases will also have to be investigated by the grand jury.

The indications now are that the court will have ample business to run it near two weeks.

What the Clerk and Ordinary Were Doing.

Last Tuesday, while in search of something to publish, we started into the ordinary's office and were in the act of pressing the latch, when the ordinary, who was walking back and forth in front of the door, like a soldier on duty in time of the war, yelled, "who's don't!" We halted as suddenly as a balky horse and were not long in ascertaining why we were not admitted. An old ex-confederate soldier was being examined. We informed, from what the officer said that two physicians had the old fellow completely disabled and were seeing if they could find 600 worth of war wounds on his body. It is pretty hard for an old soldier who has went through the war and suffered untold misery from exposure and hunger to have to go through all this after relating his disabilities under oath—two other witnesses testifying the same—but it is law and he has to do it. Yes, after he has done all he could in the defense of his country, now, while peace reigns throughout the land and starvation is staring him in the face, he has to stand this rigid examination in order to get any assistance from the state.

We left the ordinary on picket duty and went up into the clerk's office and found the officer in charge recording mortgages, deeds, etc., and getting everything in good trim for the inspection of the next grand jury—a nice or better kept set of books we never saw.

But few changes in the furniture of the office have been made in a long, long time. The same old shovel, which was used by the first clerk over taking the oath of office, still sets in the corner. The ventilation of the room is just the same as it was several years ago. The panes in five windows are broken and two of them are entirely gone.

The clerk showed us how he regulated the ventilation. Of old days he sticks his hat and handkerchief in two of the holes in the ceiling and hangs his coat and vest over the largest. One of these holes is 12x24, being large enough to admit the entrance of any common sized man desiring to inspect the records in the absence of the clerk. The only change we could see was a comparatively new and improved seal, which is much easier and more convenient to operate than the old one. To make a seal with the former one the clerk rubbed ink on it and placed the seal at the required place, put it on a string and latched a pole half as long as fence rail to a short chain which was fastened to a strong part of the table, and sit down on the end of the pole like boys used to make a cinder, or a lady fixing to take a horseback ride.

The clerk's office is the oldest room in the court house, and should receive the attention of the grand jury.

Charged With Making and Passing Counterfeit Money.

Geo. Corn and Silvester Stepp were arrested by City Marshal Anderson and Sheriff Pruitt last Wednesday morning and brought to town and lodged in jail. Corn, being charged with passing counterfeit money, and Stepp is charged with both making and circulating some of the same kind of metal.

The warrant against Corn was sworn out by Lewis Black and the one for Stepp by John Corn, Jr. Lewis claims that Corn paid him a silver counterfeit dollar for a gallon of liquor, and his brother, John Corn stated that Stepp not only passes this kind of money, but has the molds and makes it from five cents to $1.00, which can only be detected by the rattle. Stepp used to live in Dahlonega when a boy, left here many years ago and had not been heard of since until recently, having been holding forth at George Corn's for some weeks. In his valise several molds of the spurious coins were found and it is claimed that he has much of it hid away at or near where he boarded.

Sheriff Pruitt will turn the defendants over to the U. S. officials and their trials will probably be heard to day by Com. Baker.

It is said that Stepp has just served out a sentence in the penitentiary, having been sent from Tennessee for counterfeiting for three years.

B. F. ANDERSON.

The most awful thought that comes to a man, sometimes, is the thought of a soul that he injured years and years ago, and that he can not touch and can not help. It is his own life is under better influence, his own life is uplifted, but where is the man, where is the woman, to whom he did the harm years ago? God sees us from that I would be hopeless if it had not the hope in the endless love of God to fail back upon.—Phillips Precks.

Gainesville was the seat of war during the campaign. It has always been a special interest of the reformers to win in the next campaign. The Outlook will be sent to all who send us $1.00. Now, will you please send us $1.00 by the first of November next. Your dollar will go far. From November 1st to November 1905.

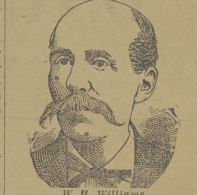

Many of our reformers as well as co-workers, will want it during the heat of the campaign. Show them that NOW is the time to act.

To defray expenses with, we will give a special list of ten per cent. to the man in each of the reformers, countries in the 11th district who sends us the largest list of cash subscribers from his county.

Taking all these offers into consideration, we feel assured that our friends of reform of the 11th district will, at once give us their support. Address all correspondence to THE OUTLOOK, Gainesville, Ga. Don't send money. Mr. 29 41.

Death Was Preferable

To Prostration After the Grip Hood's Sarsaparilla Built Up and Gave Perfect Health.

This is a well-known merchant at Key West, Florida. His account of his condition after the grip, and how it was cured, should be read by all.

"I had the grip twice, which came near ending my existence on the earth, and left me in a condition to which I can never return."

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures

not taken Hood's Sarsaparilla I should not have been able to get on my feet from the first bottle and I started to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, which has been instrumental in curing me of my ailment, to thousands of others of our fellow men."

W. L. WILKINS, B. Key West, Florida.

Hood's Pills become the favorite cathartic with everyone who uses them. 50c per box.

Dahlonega Volunteers.
Below we give the names of the 1st Regiment of Georgia Volunteers, as furnished by Mr. J. B. Brown, who left Dahlonega in the year 1861 for the front to battle for a cause which they believed to be right. Out of this large number only about twelve now reside in the country. Many of them lost their lives and were buried in a strange land, away from friends and relatives, where their bodies have long since returned to dust. Time is telling fast on the few that are left, and a short while the bugle will sound and they too, must join their comrades who have long since passed over the river. The list is as follows:
Capt. Alfred Harris, succeeded by T. B. Cabiness.
1st Lieutenant, Jacob Hardin, succeeded by R. A. Graham.
S. A. Kelly, 2nd Lieut.
S. H. Gibson, 3rd Lieut.

They Know Nothing.

[Written for the SIGNAL.]
The sun shines forth to-day.
The birds fly swiftly far away.
The man of wisdom long ago dead,
Know nothing of what's happening
over head.

The statesman, who will vent his years,
A nation bowed over his grave in tears,
A millionaire long ago dead,
Know nothing of what's happening
over head.

Prood crafty lawyers of every age,
Men who have written their names
on history's page,
All of them silent, all of them dead,
Know nothing of what's happening
over head.

Ministers of every clime,
Men who have wept their time,
Mothers who have wept for their children in bed,
Know nothing of what's happening
over head.

Children of Nables and Kings,
Eminent musicians who have played
on strings,
All gone, all sleep in the city of the dead,
And none of them know what's hap-

Dahlonega Signal.

DAHLONEGA, APR. 12, 1895.

Go to J. F. Moore's for your straw hats.

Some of our citizens are offering $1.75 per hundred for fodder.

Mrs. Robert Harrison will move to Ducktown, Tenn., in a week or so.

Mountain Irish potatoes sold at $1.25 per bushel in Dahlonega this week.

There is one confederate soldier's grave in the Dahlonega cemetery marked "Unknown."

Mr. James W. Harrison expects to visit the old folks at home in Tennessee, in a short time.

Work has suspended on the Findley pump for a few days until the machinist can make a trip North.

Mrs. Strickland went to Atlanta this week to lay in her spring and summer stock of millinery goods.

The latest custom in Dahlonega is for the masters to send out invitation cards inviting people to attend church.

The ordinary is having all missing pieces of glass in the jail and court house windows replaced this week.

Gen. Murray, who is interested largely in mining in this county, is expected in Dahlonega on an early day.

Some of the Dahlonega darkies went off on a visit this week and will likely remain until after the grand jury meets and disperses.

During the week one of Mr. J. P. Moore's mules bit the end of the others tongue off, which has rendered it unable to eat anything since.

Mr. Thomas E. Burns left Gainesville for Atlanta last Monday for the purpose of laying in a $3,500 stock of goods to be put up in Dahlonega.

Our physicians are being kept busy a good portion of the time in examining applicants desiring pensions. This is done for love alone. No money in it for the doctors.

If you want blanks, such as warranty deeds, attachments, various notes, mortgage notes, Justice Court summons and bills, I have a nice lot printed on good paper, at reasonable prices. J. F. Moore.

Some two or three weeks ago Mr. D. T. Harris, of Dahlonega, published a card in the Constitution, Sunny South and Signal, desiring to hear from some of the six hundred comrades who served with him in prison during their last week he received a letter from Henry H. Cook, of Ewing, Tenn., stating that him and a Mr. Casey, at the same place, were all alive.

Two of our little town darkies, who do not wish to work, have fell upon a plan to baffle biggest portion of the time and escape being arrested by authority of the vagrant law. They have made a contract with Edna Jefferson and Harvey Anderson, who are at work in the mines, to carry their clothes to them every day for what is left in the buckets after they are done. Harvey is a hearty and hardy fellow ever leaves anything. Often when the other boys return with a full stomach and a bright smile, Harvey's dinner boy comes back with his pants hanging loose about him as if cut two numbers too large, wearing a sad face, like his ma was dead, but he had rather work and took this way than to work.

There is a fellow living in Dahlonega who, we believe would join the temperance society, if he didn't think he had to tell his experience like they do in church. An accident happened to him one time while he was drunk, which he says he cannot afford to relate in public, which he told us appearing some what embarrassed. He said one time while he was intoxicated he took a notion he would go out courting and when crossing a branch fell and got wet. It was a bright, moonlight night and he thoughtlessly sat up on the fence with the wet side towards the moon for more than half an hour thinking he was dying. So this is one scrape he got into that he cannot afford to tell in public.

The Horner mill, which has been idle a long time, is being repaired.

It snowed in some portions of this county last week.

Judge J. J. Kimsey has been requested to preach at the Baptist church at 11 o'clock Sunday.

The new dredge boat near New Bridge will be launched into the Chattahoochee river to-morrow or Monday.

Now is a good time to plant your spring peas in the Signal. We will cultivate them and insure you an abundant yield.

E. C. Cartledge, who has been absent in Atlanta for several months, is back at home again. He is now a full fledged M. D.

Geo. P. Bates will have something interesting for your reading in next week. His ad was not received in time for this issue.

Last Friday Justice Court of Atlanta district, convened in a store and the jury had to go out to an old stable to make up its verdict.

Dr. Waddell, of the N. G. A. College, visited Gainesville last Saturday, and delivered a sermon at the Presbyterian church in that place on Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Hawkins, who was expected to conduct the present series of meetings, now in progress at the Baptist Church, writes that he cannot possibly be here.

Quite a large number of people visited Dahlonega last Saturday. Some came to fix up their pension papers while others desired to hear the trial of the counterfeiter.

Hiram Cronan and John L. Gaddis are two of the happiest men in Hightower district. A fine boy has put in its appearance at Cronan's, and a beautiful little girl is stopping at Gaddis'.

The ordinary issued four sets of licenses Saturday, and on Sunday two weddings occurred, which we have heard of—Mr. Bud Armstrong to Miss Ann Crisson, and Mr. Dan Proctor to Miss Mattie Low.

It is a frequent thing to see boys pointing guns at each other. It might be well enough for them to know that this is a violation of law and the sooner they stop it the better it will be for them, for sometime they might be called upon to pay a fine or go to the chain gang.

There is a recent law providing for the building of court houses in each precinct by the county should be a grand jury see proper to recommend it. Our county is needing these buildings at various places and the matter should receive the attention of the grand jury next week.

It is a hard matter to price goods cheap enough for some people. The other day a certain fellow went into a store in Dahlonega and asked the price of a hammer. The merchant showed him one manufactured of old metal, telling him he could have it for a dime. "Can't you let me have two for 15 cents?" enquired the man.

The other night just after a certain fellow heard that thieves were numerous in the land, he came to town with his arms so as to be ready in case they made an attack on his house. He secured a gun and a pistol, drank about a pint of "pop skull" and started for home carrying the gun on his shoulder and the pistol in his hand, firing nothing. He had not got far, however, until the overdose of the liquor caused him to feel rich and happy and fall of joy. Very soon he was traveling from first one side of the road to the other, as if surveying a route for a lead mine, and singing:

Gladden to the head tree,
Peck, peck, peck.
After while the "pop skull" got in its work, the music ceased and down he came, and there he lay unconscious, his friends came and found him lying resting as happy as a dead pig in the sun shine, with his arms scattered at various places up the road.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

An interesting meeting is in progress at the Baptist church.

Seed sweet potatoes are not to be had in the Dahlonega market.

Mrs. Josie Thomas, of Dawsonville, was the guest of the chief editor of the Signal and his wife Friday and Saturday.

Rev. Steward Waters, who was well known in this county, died at his home in Murray County, Tenn., on the 11th of February, aged 96 years.

Uncle Mart Edmondson, of Ansonia, who has been a resident of this county for 65 years, was up to Dahlonega last Saturday making an effort to draw a pension.

There is scarcely any sickness now but next week there can convene and the state docket is sounded you will hear of many a fellow so bad off that he can scarcely hold up his head.

We call our readers attention this week the ad. of J. E. Murphy, to be found on the first page of this issue. This gentleman is too well known to our readers to receive any comment from us.

Parties attending court next week desiring a good lunch, should call on W. B. Woodward, where they can get them from 10 to 25 cents. Store between Price & Charters and Dr. Wheeler's office.

Mr. Thomas E. Burns, of the city of Gainesville, will open out a general mercantile business at the old Burnside stand in a few days. Tom is one of the old Dahlonega boys and we hope he will do well.

The Lumpkin county finance committee, composed of Joseph Allen, J. C. Stargel and T. F. Jackson, met for the transaction of business last Monday, and now have their report ready for the grand jury.

Our friends attending court next week will find the latch string to the Signal office hanging on the outside of the door, and are cordially invited to come and give it a pull. Bring along 50 cents in the hand if you desire.

Capt. Woodward, of the Signal, has assumed charge of the Horner mine. The object at the present being to run the mill for prospecting purposes and to make, if possible, investigation that will warrant more extensive work. Captain Woodward will be treated upon reasonable terms. A good road has been made from top of Day Hill to the mill, making the mill easy of access.

Mr. J. B. Clements informs us that while prospecting last week, near James T. Grandle's, in this county, he saw a stranger who said he had just been bitten by a mad dog, the blood dripping from the fingers of one of his hands when he approached Mr. Clements. The man said he was traveling along the road when a dog ran up behind him and snapped his fingers before he knew one was about. Upon being asked why he didn't shoot the dog stated that he had no pistol. He said he had just escaped from the chain gang in Jackson county, where he was released of his pistol when arrested. When asked why he was put in the chain gang, said that he was only traveling about when they took him up at Jefferson and sentenced him to thirty days on the streets, and the first opportunity offered he bit the old man that was guarding him farewell.

Two lives saved.
Mrs. John Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctor she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her life. Mrs. Thos. Eggers, 130 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption. She tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is not only a doctor, but it is such a relief, that these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Price trial bottles 5c. and $1.00. Drug Store.

Hood's Sassafras gives great relief, nerve, mental and digestive strength, simply because it purifies, vitalizes and enriches the blood.

Mr. Barker shoots his Son.
Just about dark Thursday of last week a messenger came to Dahlonega in search of a physician stating that Martin V. Barker had shot his son John with a pistol at the old man's house at the Chestnut mine, some three miles from Dahlonega.

Dr. Wheeler went over and found that the young man was shot through one thigh and the ball lodged in the other, being done with cap and ball Colts pistol.

The ball was located and cut out on the opposite side of the thigh from which it had entered and the wound dressed, when the physician returned to Dahlonega. How the ball missed the large artery in the thigh is a mystery, for Dr. Wheeler says it looks as if it would have struck it centrally, and if it had John would have bled to death at an early period.

The cause of this trouble as we have guessed it is as follows: John Barker, was at the time of the trouble, living with his father at the Chestnut mine, but was expecting to leave the next day. A difficulty arose between John's wife and his father-in-law, who knocked down a time or two. This reminded John's services necessary, when he doctored his father and choked him until he became satisfied. He let his father up, who gathered up an ax and made for his son John. John fit out into the yard and picked up two rocks with which the old man took him on the head and the ax was at his throat. As he was at the racket.

Several Guests.
The interior of the hotel de Pruit has presented a lively appearance for the past week. The register last Monday showed the following: Docia Beck, fornication and adultery. Tom Johnson, fornication and adultery. Bob Bristol, gambling. Dick Parker, illicit distilling. Sylvester Stepp, counterfeiting. Andy Lee, assault with intent to murder.

Mayor's Court.
On Wednesday night three cases were disposed of by Mayor Harrison, charged with the following offenses: John Jackson, vagrancy. John proved a pretty good record and was discharged.

Dave Franklin—failing to work the streets after being warned. Sentenced to one day and night in prison and then required to perform the labor.

The case against a little fellow named Cushtin, charged with the same, was discharged.

Veterans Applying for Aid.
The following is a list of the confederate veterans of Lumpkin who have been examined up to date by the physicians, and recommended to draw pensions under the late act, to-wit:

W. M. Grizzle, W. F. Hallows, W. M. Kemp, John Beck, Sr., West Walker, Sr., Almer Walker, F. C. Magnus, Wilson Pierce, George Clements, Rev. J. N. Austin, Dewey Motte, Wm. Whitlock.

Easter Sunday.

Next Sunday is Easter. Many have already secured their eggs to have decorated and ready for that day so as to please the "little ones" and make them happy.

"Awaken sweet sleepers!"

The snow in the valleys has melted at last. And the absolute night of the year is past.

The ice-chains are broken, the robins are singing—
Awake to the call of Easter bells ringing!

Awaken, O heart! In bondage of sin thou hast slumbered so long.

Arise in the beauty and rapture of song. Arise in the gladness of nature's adornings.

Come forth in thy strength on this glad Easter morning!

Number of Churches.
From a member of the church who is well posted, we learned last week that there are 34 churches in Lumpkin county—23 Baptist and 11 Methodist, two of them colored—one a Baptist and the other Methodist—located in the various districts as follows:

Amurria, Methodist 2, Baptist 1. Cane Creek, Methodist 1, Baptist 2.

Chestate, Methodist 0, Baptist 2. Crumby's, Methodist 2, Baptist 3. Davis, Methodist 1, Baptist 2. Dahlonega, Methodist 2, Baptist 3.

Frogtown, Methodist 0, Baptist 1. Hightower, Methodist 1, Baptist 2. Jones Creek, Methodist 0, Baptist 1.

Ma Ford, Methodist 1, Baptist 0. Shoal Creek, Methodist 1, Baptist 2.

Wahoo, 0, 0. Yahola, Methodist 0, Baptist 2. Nimblewill, Methodist 0, Baptist 1.

Mill Creek, 1, 0. The Methodist churches are the fewest in number but the membership is the largest.

Glenn Spencer, of Wilcox, was bound over by Com. Baker last Wednesday charged with porjury. Some time ago a case was made against him for running the blockade and he swore that he had nothing to do with it. So Wednesday two witnesses testified to the contrary, and he will likely have a hard road to travel now. He was carried to Atlanta yesterday, together with Sylvester Stepp, who is charged with counterfeiting.

IN THE SPRING

Nearly everybody need a good medicine. The impurities which have accumulated in the blood during the cold months must be expelled, or when the mild days come, and the effect of bruising air is lost, the body is liable to be overcome by debility or some such disease. The remarkable success achieved by Hood's Sassafras, and the many words of praise it has received, make it worthy your confidence. We ask you to give this medicine a trial. We are sure it will do you good. Read the testimonials published in behalf of Hood's Sassafras, all from reliable, grateful people. They tell the story.

Needled Corrections.
"Here is a poem which you may publish in your paper," said the young man, with eyes on a fine freckle rolling as he entered the editorial door, according to the St. Louis Humorist. "I dashed it off rapidly, in an idle moment, and you will find it in its rough state, as it were. You can make such corrections as you think necessary."
"Ah, much obliged," said the editor, "I will give a check for it at once."
"You are very kind," said the contributor, "I shall be delighted."
"There you are," said the editor, handing him a check.
"Many thanks," exclaimed the young man, "I will bring you some other poems."
When he got near the door he suddenly paused, then he came back.
"Excuse me," he said, "but you forgot to fill up the check. You have not written the date nor the amount, nor have you signed your name."
"Oh, that is all right," said the editor. "You see, I have given you a check in its rough state, as it were. You can make such corrections as you think necessary."

A Reverie.
When we parted, little sweetheart,
Life was glad as it could be;
'Twas as bright as morning sunshine,
Dancing o'er a placid sea.
When I pressed your soft, white fingers
Ah! I hold that memory well—
We never dreamed that sad parting
Would be such a long farewell.
Then I thought the days would hasten,
And I've grown so weary, darling,
In the absence of thy face.
Ah, I miss thee, little sweetheart,
In my dreams and in my toiling.
Ah, I miss the every day,
And I wonder as my footsteps
Tread the lonely, desert land,
If you ever remember, darling,
If you ever pray for me.

Over two weeks ago, W. R. Nicholson, of New Zealand, arrived here on the steamer Mariposa, and put up at the American Exchange hotel. He was so roughly dressed and so unlovely in appearance, with a queer bunch of whiskers on his chin, that he seemed a walking advertisement of hand luck. He had arrived in the steamer, and took one of the very cheapest rooms in the house. Under these circumstances Manager Wiseman was inclined to keep a wary eye on him. At the end of three days Mr. Wiseman brushed the subject of settling his bill.

The queer guest said he would pay the bill the next day or two. He did not, however, and was spoken to again about it. Still there was a hitch, but finally the New Zealander said he would go up stairs and get the money. After while he came down with it and paid the bill.

Then he explained that the reason why he hadn't paid it before was that he had all his money sewed up in his vest. On an investigation it was shown that he had a surprising amount. There was no less than $5,000 in bills and English sovereigns, mostly the latter besides $4,000 in drafts. The sovereigns weighed down the vest till it was as heavy as the owner, and all an able-bodied man could carry. They were skillfully and stoutly sewn in from the bottom up, so that all around his sides and front there was money, and the back of the vest was strengthened with leather straps to keep the garment from being pulled to pieces.

This queer contrivance, loaded with coin, bills, and drafts, the man with the bulgy-goggle whiskers has been logging with him wherever he traveled. There were fears at times that he would be robbed, but Nicholson has always insisted that he could take care of himself.

A few days ago, after returning from a warm walk down town with his load of cash, he threw off his heavy vest in his room and put on another one to cool off. He finally stepped down stairs, leaving the door open.

He sat at a desk for a long time forgetting about his cash. Suddenly he recollected it, his face assumed an ashen hue, and he vanished up stairs like a streak of light. His precious vest was there though, hanging on a chair. He grabbed it and put it on, and since then has worn it constantly.

Nicholson came over to invest his money, but he did not find anything to suit, as the land of the money man was not so fertile. He handed him a check.
"Many thanks," exclaimed the young man, "I will bring you some other poems."
When he got near the door he suddenly paused, then he came back.
"Excuse me," he said, "but you forgot to fill up the check. You have not written the date nor the amount, nor have you signed your name."
"Oh, that is all right," said the editor. "You see, I have given you a check in its rough state, as it were. You can make such corrections as you think necessary."

Dahlfonega Signal.

DAHLFONEGA, APR. 19, 1895.

Frost Monday morning.

The whippoorwill sang his first tune one night last week.

Judge Kimsey preached at the Baptist Church Sunday night.

Mrs. Wm. Lanco died in Yakolia district last Monday of fever.

Jap. Williams, of Gaddistown, spent Sunday night in Dahlfonega.

The past week has been very rainy and disagreeable.

Nearly every body and their grand mothers were in town this week.

Mr. John Jackson, of Nelson, Ga., was on a visit to his father this week.

Mrs. James M. Rice and her daughter Mrs. Salie Turner, have returned from Tennessee.

Mr. Mitchell, of Gainesville, was up to see his son who is attending the N. G. A. College, last Sunday.

Appropriate services were held at both the churches Easter Sunday and the attendance was very good.

Mr. Wm. Jarrard, of Chestnut district, was seriously hurt a few days ago by falling out of a wagon.

Mr. Albert Whitehead, who returned from White last week, says he saw a gourd at Mr. Riley Helton's which held 17 1/2 gallons.

The Judge says that all blunders in Dahlfonega and Lumpkin county must be brought into court. He desires to see how large the animals are.

The genial countenance of that great jurist, Judge W. W. Murray, of Huntingdon, Tenn., is again seen on our streets. The Judge has large mineral interests here and has come to look after them.

Bill Peck, charged with selling liquor, who has been hiding out for many months, was arrested at Wm. Stringers Saturday night by Sheriff Anderson and Sheriff Pruitt and looked up in jail.

Through a mistake the comptroller sent the Fannin county digest to this county together with Lumpkin and it was not discovered until last Monday when he received open the package.

Since our report last week of the number of churches—Methodist and Baptist—in the county, we are informed that there are two Methodist churches in Nimbillewell district and one in Jones Creek.

There will be a very good fruit crop in this section after all. Last spring, when it looked like every tree had been killed, some of our citizens cut down every fruit tree, and of course they will have no fruit, but those that left their standing will have plenty of fruit.

Geo. Elrod, col., who has been accused of furnishing parties participating in strong drink in Dahlfonega, for some time passed, was arrested last Monday by U. S. Deputy Marshal Harbison. The result of which will cause George to have to go down and meet Judge Newman in Atlanta.

Last Monday, while Albert Hamilton was riding one of Capt. Ingalls' horses in a trot down by L. Q. Meadors' residence, a flame across the street gave way, which threw the horse, and the rider passed over its head. The darkey had an ax on his shoulder at the time of the fall, but neither the negro, horse or ax received any injuries.

Mr. J. P. Sewell will exhibit the Edison Phonograph, one of the greatest wonders of the 19th century, at the court house to-night at 7:30 o'clock. Everybody interested, especially the ladies. Admission 10 and 5 cents. It will distinctly repeat speeches, songs, both sacred and comic, guitar and brass band music, etc. We have heard it and know whereof we speak.

THE GENUINE MEREIT

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla, our friends wherever it is fairly and honestly tried. To have perfect health, you must have pure blood, and the best way to have pure blood is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the best blood purifier and strength builder. It expels all taint of scrofula, and cleanses the system and restores the whole system.

Hood's Pills are prompt and efficient. 25c.

Only about two hundred persons have registered.

Rev. W. A. Parks will preach at Auraria next Sunday at 11 o'clock.

A large number of our farmers expected to get done with planting this week but were prevented by the heavy rains.

A. S. Wheelchel, of New Bridge, made another sale last week. He has sold a portion of his property to Baily & Son, of Michigan, for $1,700.

Mr. Chas. H. Findley, son of Col. W. F. Findley, of Gainesville, has been as busy as a bee this week taking down testimony in the felony cases.

A fellow the other day had cheek enough to borrow the Signal to read before the owner had time to look over it.

Notwithstanding the Judge's special charge to the grand jury this week about the sale of whisky, some risked it and brought in enough to cause several to feel rich and happy.

It is said that one of our subscribers, who resides in White county, has long since had his funeral preached. During the war news came that he was killed in a battle and his funeral was preached at the Methodist Church in Dahlfonega.

Major N. P. Hutcheson, who has been temporarily engaged in the Nugget office as printer and local editor, left this week. He is a jolly good fellow of 62 summers and we wish him good luck in his pathway he strewn with kind friends and the blessings of the Almighty.

But few members of the bar are in attendance upon court this week except the local bar, on account of not being interested in the murder cases. Those that are here are Col. W. F. Findley and D. G. Craig, of Gainesville, Col. J. M. Bishop, of Dawsonville, and Col. J. W. H. Underwood, of Cleveland. Col. Dean came in Wednesday.

One night this week, just as Mr. Will Hutcheson was returning home from Court, he saw something white fly over his head and light in the edge of the yard. Of course he had a curiosity to know what it was and it went to see. It proved to be a wild chick. He caught it, clipped the ends of its wings and now has it in a coop.

Mr. T. E. Burside, who was expected to move his store from Gainesville to this place, has been closed out by his creditors. The load or two of goods already sent to Dahlfonega were also taken charge of Tuesday, and the beautiful store room that was being fitted up for Mr. Burside by Mr. Harbison will likely be occupied by some one else.

While Judge Gaston, of Gainesville, was in Dahlfonega the other day he said The State would buy the northeastern railroad and that a road would be extended to this place. Sure enough last Tuesday it was purchased by Gov. Atkinson for $100,000, being the only bid. Now we hope that Judge Gaston's prediction will come to pass about the extension.

The grand jury has had much business to look after this week. Family quarrels have caused brother-in-laws to prosecute each other and other parties who were so prejudiced against some persons who were charged with violating the law, that it is said they would go to witnesses summoned before the grand jury, and tell them that if they didn't swear certain things or certain ways, they would be prosecuted for perjury.

We are satisfied that some of the fine Irish potatoes that are hauled off from this section and sold at fifty and sixty cents per bushel are barreled up and sent back to us for Eastern seed at forty-five cents per bushel. A farmer carried off a load below about four years ago for which he received only sixty cents per bushel. A merchant told him if he had only just waited two or three weeks longer and brought the load down he would have put them up in some old sugar barrels and sold them for Eastern seed.

The World's Fair Tests showed no baking powder so pure or so great in leavening power as the Royal.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

The Dahlfonega temperance society now numbers ninety-nine members.

The patent medicine and phonograph men made a raid on our town this week.

Ten true bulls were returned by the grand jury up to Thursday morning.

The cow that ate up Bill Stringers' bunch of choice fruit trees a few weeks ago is dead, just as he wished.

Just as soon as the protracted meeting closed at the Baptist church this week one commenced at the Methodist.

We heard a gentleman say last Saturday that if alive, he intended to make a race for the legislature on the prohibition ticket next election.

There will be no preaching at the Baptist Church next Sunday as Judge J. J. Kimsey will preach at the Methodist Church at 11 o'clock, a. m.

Last Friday was Good Friday and the white folks planted their gardens, while the darkeys observed the day by having a dance at early candle light.

Mr. John Hollifield, of Auraria, said the other day that he ought to be a good speller for he devoured seven of Webster's spelling books while going to school when a boy.

Judge Gaston, of Gainesville, rolled into Dahlfonega Sunday. He is a former citizen of Dahlfonega and has many warm friends in this section who are always glad to see him.

Elsewhere will be found the ad. of Geo. B. Estes, who is prepared to sell you goods at bottom prices. Mr. Estes has many customers in this county who are aware of his honest manner of dealing.

The Dahlfonega during this week is alive with visitors and reminds us of those good old times when they used to coin gold at Dahlfonega when this hotel was run by a man who has long since passed away.

We regret to have to chronicle the death of Mrs. P. O. Jones, which occurred in Cave Creek district on the evening of the 13th inst. The husband and other relatives have our sympathies in their hour of distress.

We were maintained last week for perjury first of the week and sent off. His trial didn't commence until Saturday and was concluded Monday which resulted in him being bound over. He will likely be convicted in the final trial as the evidence against him is said to be very strong.

The first number of the Phi-PALAESTR, a bright and now sixteen column paper, edited by the college students, has made its appearance. It is him full of interesting original matter gotten up by both male and females now attending the N. G. A. College and issued semi-monthly at the low price of 25 cents for three months. Former students desiring to keep posted in what is going on at the old college on the hill should send for this paper.

A mother and her two children now lie resting in one grave at Macedonia cemetery in this county, the interment having taken place on Thursday last week. The deceased woman was a Miss Dyre, of Union, a sister of Jos. Jarrard, of this county. One of her children died and was buried in that county about two years ago. Eighteen months later another one of her children died, which was buried by the side of the first one, and on Sunday, the 7th inst., when Mrs. Dyre passed away she desired to be interred in Macedonia cemetery in Lumpkin county. So her request was carried out and the remains of her two children were taken up and removed and laid by the side of their mother as before stated.

That scrofulous taint which has been in your blood for years, will be expelled by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier.

Send in $1.50 and get this paper and the Atlanta Weekly Constitution twelve months.

Prisoners hereafter will be more cautious about damaging the jail locks since Judge Kimsey fined a couple of parties pretty heavy this week.

A mad dog bit several hogs in Nimbillewell district a few days ago, and a number of them had to be killed. A cow was also bitten belonging to Mrs. Wells and it went mad. The citizens are greatly alarmed in that vicinity.

A few days ago Mrs. Marion Turner, of Shoal Creek district, whipped a female living in the same neighborhood, known as "Catty" Kandy, because her husband had made her a present of some money. Turner afterwards whipped his wife and the grand jury have been looking into the matter.

Last Sunday Mrs. Glenn Spencer, of White county, appeared at the jail, saying she desired to go in to see her husband, who is charged with perjury by the United States authorities. The Sheriff informed her that she would have to be searched by either him or his wife. This she refused. After remaining a short while she said she had to go and see a cousin of hers. She went out of the building and back the road which she came, and after while she returned and told the Sheriff that she was willing to be searched. This aroused the suspicion of the Sheriff and he sent a man out to see if she hadn't hid something. Under a little bush was found a good sized auger, auger handle and a file. Spencer was so badly disappointed that it made him sick, and at the afternoon two ministers called to see him, but the jailer was absent and they didn't get to do anything for him.

Death of Mr. Ambrose Jenkins.

That dreaded monster called death has again visited Dahlfonega and removed from our midst Mr. Ambrose Jenkins, one among the oldest citizens in Dahlfonega, occurring on the afternoon of the 14th inst., at his sons, Mr. J. H. Jenkins, in the suburbs of our town.

For years the deceased had suffered untold agony from a disease which made his skin almost as red as fire. The pain was so great that he could sit down only for a short while and had to keep on the go almost all the time until about a year ago he became so exhausted that he had to take his bed and was not seen on our streets any more.

Uncle Ambrose had been with us a long time and was liked by every one who knew him. At the time of his death he was drawing a pension from the United States for services rendered in assisting to carry off the Indians from this county years ago. But his journey is now ended and he has gone to meet his comrades who have passed on before.

The deceased was about 78 years of age. Peace to his ashes.

Protracted Meeting at the M. E. Church.

The protracted meeting at the Methodist Church began Wednesday night last and will be held until to-night. Judge Kimsey will preach Sunday at 11 o'clock. Sunday night the Juvenile Missionary Society will give an entertainment. The protracted meeting will continue at the Methodist Church all next week. W. A. PARKS, Pastor.

Memorial Day.

The honeyuckle buds again
And rose pink petals strewn the ground
As if away from battle of men
Who served his God and country right

A mound where waves a tiny flag
Of colors red and white and blue.
Beside it lies in sable weeds
Lives one again that battle through.

New wishes she her hero back
Who served his God and country right
She gave, with loyal, trustful faith,
The widow's all—it was her mate.

Beside the grave, in sun or rain,
That bent, black figure may be found
Where honeyuckle buds again
And rose pink petals strewn the ground.

Gems From Sam Jones.

If a fellow has plenty of money and no poor kin how are you going to prove anything on him? He is either crazy or innocent.

A man ought to be well paid for serving the devil, but what does he get? I wish some of you old gray-headed sinners would tell us what you have got for the most servile bodge which ever cursed mortal man.

A man will serve the devil for nothing and board himself, or get his wife to board him, or some of his knifolds.

The young men who go in the glided door of a saloon, a few days later are kicked out the back door of the lowest dive in town.

The devil never lets a man come out the same hole he went in at. He fixes another hole you've got to come through it, Bud.

The prodigal son went off in a chariot, having a great time. He came back without shoes, and stubbed all his toes on the ground. I expect.

A fattening hog does not know what he is being fattened for. If he did he wouldn't eat another gram.

He'd stay poor all his life.
A man says I object to Sam
Jones because he uses so much slang. That man will use more slang in five minutes than I will in 10 years. It is like a skunk telling a 'pessum his breath don't smell good.'

The New Mint in Colorado.

The passage of the bill for erecting a Coinage Mint in Denver, to be the best equipped in the United States, if not in the world, and an appropriation of money for that purpose by the United States Congress, is a mark of recognition of the richest gold producing district on earth, as in the last 46 years the mountains country west of Denver produced $1,958,824,000, which is practically one-fourth of all the gold produced in the history of the world for the past 400 years, which amounts to $8,399,101,000. For the last 10 years up to the decline in silver, this country produced 41.3 per cent. of the total annual product of the world.

Meanwhile, the business of mining gold and silver in this country is yet in its infancy. More profit has resulted from mining than from any other industry carried on in this country since the discovery of gold in California and the discovery of silver in Colorado.

Now Colorado is coming to the front as the greatest field in the world, but her mines are deep, and in granite, quartzite and limestone. Millions of dollars have been lost in mining as in every other business under the sun. But all these losses are payments along which the wheels of success are rolling and will roll to increased profit for generations to come.

As the bow and arrow were superseded by other inventions and appliances for war, as the cup of oil or fat with a bit of cotton cloth therein for lamps have been superseded by candles, and electric lights, all the old appliances served their purpose and were not lost, even as the losses of one generation in leaving the way on the modern and perfect appliances we now have for mining and treatment of minerals have not been losses as compared to the greater gains which will reward men of pluck and industry from this time on.

Experience is worth a great deal if it is utilized. Every old mine which proved a failure was the foundation for the success that is now coming. Every pile of low grade ore heretofore considered as of too little value to be of use, owing to the cheapening of methods and appliances to get the values out, and proving to be worthy the attention of labor and capital.

The diamond drill which brings cores of rock from the mountains to the depth of hundreds of feet, has enabled the eyes of men to go deeper into the earth than ever before, and they have proven the exact location of gold deposits in many localities heretofore not worked for gold. It was the diamond drill method of prospecting right straight down into the earth that proved the existence of gold in the noted Cripple Creek district, under Leadville; in Clear Creek Park, Gilpin and Summit counties, at the head of the Blue River and other places to which prospectors are now hurrying even before the snow is off the ground.

What a shame that the silver and gold found in this country cannot all be mined into full legal tender, money for the payment of debts or for hoarding of trading, providing those who by labor bring the so-called royal metals out of the earth shall prefer to have them minted

Dahlonega Signal.

DAHLONEGA, APR. 20, 1895.

Avoid hog cholera—see your Druggist.

See the Drug Store ad. Watch it every week.

The Findley pump commenced operation this week.

St. Joseph's family medicines for sale at W. B. Woodward's. Get a sample package of the liver powders free.

Mr. Henry Momanus, of New York, together with two other experts, are now engaged in sinking a shaft at the Garnet Mine on the sand vein and it is holding its own.

The case of the state vs. Martin V. Barker, charged with assault with intent to murder, by shooting his son, was continued until next term, and the old man is out on a good bond.

After the jury was drawn last Monday for the next term of the court, the Judge instructed Sheriff Pruitt to summons the grand jurors at once so that they could be spotting violators of the law.

Those who have been getting their toddy so convenient will no doubt often go in want of one now since Judge Kinsey closed the blind tiger in Dahlonega by fining the owner two hundred dollars.

The following N. E. were appointed at the recent term of the Superior Court: D. L. Cook, 837th dist.; Noah White, 1110th dist.; James Healey, 1282nd dist.; P. B. Reeves, 1051st dist.; Edwin Corn, 1392nd.

Col. Kile, of Cleveland, was in Dahlonega a day or two this week. The Colonel and Col. M. G. Boyd have formed a kind of a law practice in Cleveland; that is, Col. Boyd will assist Col. Kile in all cases where clients desire it.

The recent grand jury looked after those dealing in liquor generally which will have a tendency to stop some of it. But those that furnished free liquor on elections causing so much trouble in our county, were let go unnoticed, as usual. When the grand jury decides to take this matter into hand then we will have better and more prosperous times.

We received a long communication this week from Post Master D. Payne Smith at Murrayville, in reply to an article which appeared in the SIGNAL some weeks ago, in regard to certain postmasters making a profit on the sale of envelopes more than the law allows, etc. We do not publish the article because Mr. Smith was not referred to, nor no post master on his line. The complaint comes from another source.

The recent grand jury were not as favorable towards the printer as they were to themselves. They recommended the pay of jurors to be $1.50 per day and desired their presentments and the finance committee's report to be published for $10—less than starvation price. This we refused to do, but Judge Kinsey said he desired them published and he would see that the printers should receive a reasonable compensation.

A true bill was found against one of the grand jurors this week because a minister from Hall county smelt whiskey on his breath while at church recently. The old gentleman pleaded guilty and it cost him about thirty dollars. The man did it without any harm, for there are numbers of ministers in this county who often take a toddy before leaving home to preach so as to give them a clear voice in expounding the gospel. We have this from some of their own lips.

The city of Dahlonega is fortunate in securing a visit from E. E. Hutchins, M. O., the celebrated Eye Specialist and Optician, of Atlanta, Ga., who will be at the Burnside House on Wednesday and Thursday, May 1st and 2nd, who wishes us to state that he is fully prepared to handle the most difficult case of refractive error, and muscular weakness, guarantees to give satisfaction, and, further, makes no charge for consultation or examination. We advise all those who are suffering from any defect of vision to give him a call.

Certain chicken cholera cure will be found at the Drug Store.

Mr. C. L. Fabor, of Florida, visited Dahlonega this week with an eye of locating here.

Cocoanuts, oranges, bananas, lemons and fresh candies received weekly at Drug Store.

Dr. Norton and lady, of Cleveland, spent two or three days in Dahlonega last week.

Mayor Harrison was on the jury this week which made blockaders wear a broad smile.

Mrs. Dr. Jones returned from Flowery Branch Monday where she had been to visit sick relatives.

P. B. Simms was brought back from Gainesville last week wearing bracelets, and lodged in jail, charged with fornication.

Wm. McDougall, who has been confined in jail for some time charged with fornication is now at liberty, the grand jury failed to find a bill.

Mr. A. W. Peck, of this county, who is just in the prime of life, has fifteen living children—nine of them boys, who are married and residing near him.

We are informed that Judge Gaston, of Gainesville, will give one thousand dollars towards the building of a railroad from that place to Dahlonega.

The ordinary has not had time to look after the pension business for the last two weeks but will commence next Monday and continue until he gets through.

Mr. Geo. B. Hatfield, formerly of this county, died in Hall one day last week. Mr. Hatfield has a host of friends and relatives in Lumpkin county who mourn his demise.

The last grand jury was a very active body of men. They found a bill against every body they could and then turned round and tried to get two against their foreman.

Judge Kinsey believes in reducing the expenses of the county as much as possible. Last Monday he had two panels of the jury called, qualified and ready for business a few minutes after nine o'clock.

As many of our citizens differ as to the cold wave which killed the fruit trees last year, we, at the request of Dr. Howard, perused our files last Monday and found the date to be Monday, the 26th of March, 1894.

Messrs. Harris, Moore and Clements have purchased a half interest in the "Preacher" lot from Gen. Murray. Ten stamps will be removed from the Mary Henry and put on the property at once, which will be run by steam.

Mr. J. H. Kanaday, of Shoal Creek district, has a lamb with only three legs. At first Mr. Kanaday thought it would never walk but it is now as lively as a cricket and seems to get about with as much ease as if it had four legs. It is three weeks old.

A full set of officers went out Saturday night to make some arrests, but they returned Sunday morning without their number being increased. The officials along were U. S. Deputy Marshal Harrison, City Marshal Anderson, Sheriff Pruitt and Constables Hardin and Walker.

John Redmond, of New Bridge, got into another difficulty last week and received such injuries as to necessitate the carrying of one of his arms in a sling, notwithstanding he keeps out of the way of the sheriff, who desires him to go before the court and show cause why he used up Tony Tank so roughly some weeks ago.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that contain Mercury, as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by P. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by P. J. Cheney & Co., Testimonials free.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Sheriff Pruitt has been crowded with guests this week.

The grand jury presentments will appear next week.

There is talk of having the soldiers' reunion at the Dahlonega camp ground next August.

Our county treasury is again exhausted of means except a small amount of panper fund.

Geo. Whittier, of White county, was bound over by Com. Baker Tuesday for illicit distilling. Deputy Marshal Holton made the arrest.

Mr. Robert Howell has recently struck a rich gold bearing vein on Mr. Christian Wall's property near the Wilson residence, in the edge of our town, worth $25 per ton.

The last heard of Bill Thomas, who had a case booked against him for selling liquor, he was passing over the Blue Ridge one day last week in a full trot with an overcoat under his arm.

The Deora temple will give their spring term debate at the college hall to-morrow evening, 27th inst. Subject: Resolved that women should vote. The public are cordially invited to attend.

Judge Kinsey has been making a pretty warm for liquor dealers this week. He says with the assistance of the grand jury he will put a stop to the sale of liquor not only in this county, but every place where he has jurisdiction.

The daily mail was near three hours behind last Saturday. At first it was reported that the mail boy carrier had pitched overboard and had received dangerous injuries by the lack passing over his body, but we learn that there is nothing in this report.

Doubtless some of you veterans who participate in the memorial exercises to-day will be numbered with the dead before another twelve months roll round. Life is so uncertain and comes when least expected. Twelve months ago today an old veteran, while on his way to the cemetery, took sick and had to be hauled back home, where he went to bed and rose no more.

We notice that two or three parties were fined by the Mayor of Gainesville last week for selling liquor. Dahlonega and Gainesville are both supposed to be dry towns and we cannot see why parties cannot be punished in Dahlonega by the mayor for this offense as well as in Gainesville.

Col. Price informs us that he will make a trip in a few days in the interest of a railroad to Dahlonega. He has made a proposition to parties desiring a road to be built from Gainesville, to let them have the right of way of the Gainesville & Dahlonega road, provided they build it according to the last survey—via, Auraria.

We heard a fellow, who only pays a poll tax, grumbling the other day about the present term of Lumpkin Superior Court being so expensive. It is very true, but numbers of persons who had bills found against them this term were tried and disposed of. The Judge takes nothing but legal excuses, which causes many persons to be ready whether they want to or not.

The case of J. C. Satterfield, for assaulting J. W. Walker on last election day, was continued until next term of the court on account of the defendants' condition. The wound he received on the head during the row has not yet healed up. His skull is fractured and the physicians say that it will require an operation before he gets well and may be then.

RHEUMATISM CURED. Rheumatism is caused by lactic acid in the blood attacking the fibrous tissues of the joints. Keep your blood pure and healthy and you will not have Rheumatism. Hood's Sarsaparilla gives the blood vitality and richness and tones the whole body, neutralizes the acidity of the blood and thus cures Rheumatism.

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, assist digestion, cure headache.

Judge Kinsey had a large congregation to hear him preach at the Methodist church last Sunday.

Attorney Latner, of Dawsonville, dropped in to attend to some business in court latter part of last week.

Mr. John Tate, wife and four of his children, of Willow, spent last Sunday in Dahlonega with relatives. Mr. Tate is a farmer of the working kind, everything about him is to keep moving. Two of his boys, the youngest being just eleven, plow every day during the week, and the result is Mr. Tate raises plenty of hog and homony to sell.

Elsewhere we publish an article headed "A Message," at the request of some unknown party, who seems to have left this country many years ago, leaving a lover behind who has never forgotten. It was received by mail last Saturday evening, and the one he has reference to, we know not and doubtless never will. We publish it at the request of the writer because he seems so anxious for us to do so saying that "no harm is meant."

The 250 pound editor of the Signal has a good deal of trouble in getting a suit of clothes to fit him. He ordered a suit recently and it came the other day, he tried it on and you ought to have seen him. Neither coat nor pants were long enough. The tail of the coat barely covered the lower part of his back bone and the pant legs didn't reach far enough down to keep his knee caps from being exposed, somewhat imitating a king fisher.

Mr. J. M. Christopher, of Shoal Creek district, was appointed jury commissioner to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. John Evans. The Judge said he didn't appoint this gentleman because the grand jury recommended it, but because he was acquainted with him and knew him to be a good man. Judge Kinsey also stated that in his appointments he intended mixing the political parties. The next vacancy on the board will occur at the April term, but so far as he is not a republican on it, some one belonging to that party will have a showing. This is nothing but justice and shows that Judge Kinsey does not run his court in the interest of any political party but solely in the interest of equity and justice.

We learned last week that one of the candidates, who was canvassing the county awhile before the last election, came near being scared out of his wits while stopping at a voters house, residing at the foot of the Blue Ridge. The voter was very fond of music but he owned no instrument and had stretched some hair, taken from a horse tail, across the large cracks of the log house, which furnished ample music when the wind blew. It was a still afternoon when the candidate called, and no notice was taken of the hairs across the crack of the house near where he slept. In the night the wind rose and he was awoken by a sound peculiar to anything he had heard, and on to the floor he lit, following at the top of his voice, alarming every one in the house. The cats ran, the dogs barked and the chickens cackled. When the lady and gentleman reached the candidate he had hollowed until all his night robe was lying on the floor except a shirt and the man was stretched on the floor almost exhausted.
